2. [REDACTED] learned that the Sophienhaus in Weimar (N 51/J 57) had been requisitioned by the Soviets. The cost for rebuilding the hospital was estimated at about 500,000 marks. The academy (sic) and the officers' quarters were moved to the so-called Weimarhalle and the vocational school in the block bounded by Karl-Liebknecht-Strasse and Stalinstrasse. The previous officers quarters on Schuetzenstrasse has become a HO hotel and a German motion picture theatre. (2) On 1 October, a train of boxcars with stove pipes was seen arriving at the Weimar railroad station from an easterly direction. Soviet soldiers were seen in the small windows of the boxcars. (3) On 4 October, apartments on Schubertstrasse were requisitioned for the Soviet Comendatura. [REDACTED] the load capacity of all bridges in Zeitz (N 52/K 08) were tested and that some of the bridges were subsequently reinforced between 14 and 23 September.

3. Some of the troops stationed in Riosa (N 52/E 81) returned to the post by 16 October. The Huder Kaserne on Heinrich-Heine-Strasse was about 80 percent occupied. A large number of tanks, possibly 200, and including three with [REDACTED] and an undetermined number of trucks of the [REDACTED] on Breitscheidstrasse was about 50 percent occupied.

Field Comments:

(1) [redacted] is probably assigned to a unit at Dresden-Klotzsche airfield.
 25X1C [redacted] was reported from the Berlin area in 1949 and 1950 and was mentioned in vouchers of the newspaper Taegliche Rundschau in 1951. [redacted] 25X1C 25X1C [redacted] was twice reported from Bischofswerda in 1947.

(2) The academy is probably the name for the previous officer training courses in the Goethe Schule. Reports on the movement of these course have been conflicting.

(3) The train probably carried recruits from the U.S.S.R.

(4) Several reports received to date mentioned the departure of the 9th Tank
 Div from the Koenigsbrueck troop training grounds. [redacted] 25X1

25X1C [redacted] confirm the arrival of units in Riesa, 25X1
 while another report confirms the simultaneous arrival of units in Oschatz.
